

Scott Auman AIA, NCARB

Position: Architect
Title: Project Manager

Project Role: Project Manager and Project Architect

Education: University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kansas
Bachelor of Architecture, 1991

Registration: Missouri

First date of Architectural Registration: 1998 State of Missouri

Certifications: NCARB

Affiliations: American Institute of Architects

Experience and Expertise:

Scott has experience serving a diverse set of clients and meeting complex project requirements. Project experience has included senior living, multi-family housing, military, educational, medical, residential, and corporate facilities. Profession experience ranges from experience with new construction, repair/renovation, facility planning, site planning, concept design, construction documents, building information modeling, and construction administration.

Successful in meeting stringent schedules, and budgets while maintaining a commitment to quality design. With hard work, open communication, and being a part of a good team, he has a solid record of successful projects.

Recent Project Experience:

- Mixed use development study, Warrensburg, MO – Project Manager
- Senior Living communities. Project Manager
The Riverside, Maumelle, AR; The Boulevard, St. Peters, MO; The Crestone, Olathe KS;
The Wellington, Liberty MO; The Princeton, Lee's Summit; The Boulevard, Wentzville MO;
The Boulevard, St. Charles MO; The Parkway, Blue Springs MO
- Hoss and Brown Offices – Project Manager

Other experience that may be beneficial

Education – Project Manager

- Strasburg School Improvements, Chilhowee School Improvements, Christ School renovation and additions, *Truman High School gymnasium and Band room Addition; *Early Childhood Opportunity Center

Government

- The Pentagon, interior renovations
- Parachute room renovations, Whiteman AFB
- *Building 53 Command Center, Whiteman AFB

* indicates work completed while with another organization.