

Tim Wilson AIA, NCARB

Position: Principal Architect
Title: Vice President

Project Role: Principal-in-Charge and Project Manager

Education: University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kansas
Bachelor of Architecture, 1990

Registration: Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Iowa, Ohio, Illinois, Arkansas, Nebraska, Texas

First date of Architectural Registration: October 2, 1995 State of Missouri

Certifications: NCARB

Affiliations: American Institute of Architects

Experience and Expertise:

As a 1990 graduate of the University of Kansas, Tim has over 30 years of professional experience as an architect. His professional experience includes being one of the managing principals of SWD Architects, master planning, site planning, building design, project management, construction administration and construction review.

Tim has multiple types of project experience in master planning, site planning, health care, industrial, historic renovation and preservation, senior housing, multi-family housing, and tenant finish projects.

Recent Project Experience:

- The Phoenix American Cob Pipe Factory Apartments – Design Architect, Architect of Record
- Church & Dwight Lab Renovation – Design Architect, Architect of Record
- The Barrymore, senior living community – Design Architect, Architect of Record
- Mary Lanning Hospital Boiler Plant Expansion – Design Architect, Architect of Record
- The Miami Towers, historic apartments – Design Architect, Architect of Record
- Nine Tribes, historic senior apartments – Design Architect, Architect of Record
- The Summit, senior living community – Design Architect, Architect of Record
- The Rushwood, senior living community – Design Architect, Architect of Record
- ManCaves Garage Condominiums – Design Architect, Architect of Record
- Washington Senior Residences, historic apartments – Design Architect, Architect of Record